Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center Charleston Awards Contract

CHARLESTON, S.C. — SYTEX, Inc., *Doylestown, Pa., is being awarded an $18,728,214 Indefinite Delivery, Indefinite Quantity, Cost-Plus-Fixed-Fee type contract for communications technical support for the U.S. Air Force in Southwest Asia to ensure Command and Control information is available to forward deployed forces supporting Operation Enduring Freedom and continuing mission requirements of the Department of Defense. This contract will provide mission critical communication capabilities supporting joint services military personnel and coalition forces. This contract includes one base year and four one-year options which, if exercised, will bring the total cumulative value of the contract to $98,640,025. Work will be performed in Government-owned and managed facilities overseas within the U.S. Central Command Air Forces area of responsibility (OCONUS 98%), and the Contractor's facility, Doylestown, Pa. (02%), and is expected to be completed by January 31, 2004. If all options are exercised, work will continue through January 31, 2008. Contract funds in the amount of $200,000 will not expire at the end of the fiscal year. This contract was competitively procured as a 100% small business set-aside. The Request for Proposal was posted on the SPAWAR Systems Center E-Commerce website and eight offers were received. The Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center, Charleston is the contracting activity (N65236-03-D-5854).

*SYTEX, Inc., of Doylestown, Pa. is a small business.
